Mi cemo vam dati ili poslati postom pismo zahvalnosti !

On an early-morning, April 22, 2007, a fire tore trough an orphanage "Ljubica Ivezic "in Sarajevo, the capital city of Bosnia & Herzegovina, killing five babies and injuring 17 children. Firefighters rescued 23 children. Before the fire, orphanage "Ljubica Ivezic" housed over 100 children.

BCCRD, Inc. is starting an initiative to help rebuild the orphanage. We are asking you to help in the following way. Please collect and bring to us all redemption receipts from empty plastic bottles, cans, and other recyclables. We will collect your receipts and exchange them for money, which will be deposited to the account for this initiative. All donors will be issued receipts for their donations.
